

I would like to add my voice to object to projects of this magnitude being reviewed and decided during these challenging times when our island population is concentrating on the day to day difficulties of the current pandemic and lock down. Thank you,

Madeline Fisher

Edgartown