

To the Martha's Vineyard Commission:

I'm writing to express my support to the expansion of the Hob Knob Inn to the property next door to it. For all of the years the inn has been open, it has been an example of the high-quality hospitality that the Vineyard, and Edgartown, are known for.

I always recommend that people stay at the Hob Knob when I am asked where they should stay on the Vineyard.

Sincerely,
Nicole Brisson
