

Historic Preservation: With or Without a Local Historic District

Historic preservation efforts at the local level often focus on regulatory means, such as a local historic district, to achieve desired preservation results. Those interested in protecting historic resources will find far more success with a balanced approach, unique to their community, based on a wide range of effective tools. This workshop describes the benefits of a realistic, cooperative and comprehensive approach.

Chris Skelly

Director of Local Programs

Massachusetts Historical Commission

Thursday, April 12, 2018 at 3:30 p.m.

Free Workshop. Everyone is welcome

At the Martha's Vineyard Commission
33 New York Avenue, Oak Bluffs

Information: Lucy Morrison, 508-338-7313

Meeting of the All-Island Historic Preservation Group

Everyone is welcome to attend a meeting of the All-Island Historic Preservation Group to discuss issues related to historic preservation including:

- Inventory of Historic Buildings in Dukes County – update from work group,
- Reports from historic district commissions and historical commissions,
- Future workshops.

Thursday, April 12, 2018 at 5:00 p.m.

Martha's Vineyard Commission, 33 New York Avenue, Oak Bluffs