

Short-Term Vacation Rental Strategies for Martha's Vineyard

Martha's Vineyard Commission - 33 New York Avenue, Oak Bluffs, MA 02557

June 26th - 11-1pm ET

Lunch will be provided

With new state legislation taking effect July 1st in Massachusetts, municipalities are looking at changes to their approach given state-wide opportunities (room occupancy excise tax) and requirements. In this session, learn simple, effective, and proven strategies for reviewing local regulations around community impact of short-term rentals and minimizing any possible negative effects on your community with the most efficient approach.

Agenda:

- 1. Welcome and Introductions
- 2. Review short-term industry status for MA and Martha's Vineyard
 - a. Updated maps and counts
- 3. Best practice on setting effective regulations
 - a. Boston and Barnstable example updates
 - b. Other states
- 4. Best practice on tools and compliance success
- 5. Questions and Answers
- 6. Next steps

RSVP to Christine Flynn, MVC (508) 693-3453 ext 113 or flynn@mvcommission.org by noon Tuesday, June 25th

About Host Compliance:

Host Compliance is the global leader in short-term rental compliance monitoring solutions for local governments. We have helped over 250 cities and counties with short-term regulation and enforcement across North America, making it possible to monitor and enforce millions of short-term rentals.