Hi, Alex,

Today I took a detour to Indian Hill to take a look at the Edwin Luce House.

I took quite a few photos. The photos shown in the application do not seem to do justice to the incredible combination of the dignified old house and the site and the views. Wow. Honestly, a person would have to be mad to destroy this. I bet this is unique on the North Shore.

Also, the house is visible from both Indian Hill Road, and the road that goes down to the Daggett Trail head.

I have more photos.

Regards

Kate Scott
